

Millionaire Soldiers to Parade Down Fifth Avenue

LATEST EXTRA

The ## World. LATEST EXTRA

WEATHER—Fair To-Night and Sunday.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

Copyright, 1915, by The Evening World Publishing Co. (The New York World).

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, AUGUST 14, 1915.

10 PAGES

PRICE ONE CENT.

BIG GERMAN ARMY TRAPPED BY RUSSIANS; VON HINDENBURG TAKES KOVNO DEFENSES

GEN. WOOD ORDERS PARADE OF CITIZEN-SOLDIER ARMY IN NEW YORK LABOR DAY

Head of Plattsburg Camp Adopts Suggestion Made by Evening World.

10,000 FRIENDS TO JOIN.

Civilians to March Down Fifth Avenue as Protest Against Unpreparedness.

(Special from a Staff Correspondent.)
CAMP OF INSTRUCTION.
PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Aug. 14.—Gen. Leonard Wood to-day adopted officially The Evening World's plan for a parade of the members of this camp on Labor Day in New York City. Moreover, every member of the camp has been asked to write his friends, urging for a civilian's parade of at least 10,000 men (not in uniform) to follow the khaki-clad volunteer soldiers down Fifth Avenue and Broadway to the Battery as a demonstration of protest against National unpreparedness.

Capt. Pierre Drullman to-day was appointed adjutant of the First Battalion at the military instruction camp and Theodore Roosevelt Jr., was made his assistant. Drullman formerly was a member of the Ninth Infantry. He resigned several years ago.

Col. Edwin F. Glynn, Chief of staff, Eastern Department, and E. Stanwood Menken, President of the National Security League, were among to-day's arrivals.

"All this work is splendid," Mr. Menken said, "but it will amount to nothing unless Congress will give us the necessary instruments for an enlarged army or reserve force."

Gen. Wood outlined a plan for a triumphal procession of the trained citizenry of this camp after one month's work on a scale through which no volunteer soldiers have ever been put in the history of American military training.

"It is my idea," said Gen. Wood, "to show to the people of New York the remarkable results of this method of preparing volunteers. It seems to me that it would be a good plan to have the men leave camp on the night of Sunday, Sept. 5, arriving in New York on the morning of Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 6. From the Grand Central Station they could parade down Fifth Avenue, giving to the people of the city a convincing demonstration of the value of the time and labor they have spent and turn in their Government equipment at Governor's

Continued on Second Page.)

SUGGESTIONS!

U TAKE A VACATION!
M 16,009 World "Summer Resort"
M 18,017 More Than The Herald!
M FIND A WINTER HOME!
E 20,417 World "To Let" Ads.
R 18,301 More Than The Herald!
HIRE COMPETENT HELP!
29,644 World "Help Wanted"
24,542 More Than The Herald!

To secure the Position, Worker, Home, Investment, Bargain, Lost Article, Etc., you seek in a hurry

Advertise in
The Big Sunday World
To-Morrow!

ATHLETE KILLED; TWO GIRLS HURT AS AUTO RAMS TREE

Two Others Injured in Crash at Night Near Boonton, New Jersey.

(Special to The Evening World.)
PATERSON, Aug. 14.—Leon Veith, a prominent young amateur athlete of Paterson, was killed early to-day and two young women and two men were severely injured when an automobile in which they were returning from Dover side-wiped a tree near Boonton and was wrecked.

The other victims of the accident are John R. Newell, No. 324 Paterson Avenue, a draughtsman, who has concussion of the brain, two fractured ribs and cuts about the head; Miss Theresa Tierney, twenty, of No. 244 Totowa Avenue, right arm broken and cut about the face; her brother George, cut and bruised about the body, and Miss Marion Whitmore, twenty-one, of No. 158 Hamburg Avenue, left leg broken and injured internally.

Miss Tierney and Miss Whitmore are teachers in the Paterson public schools. Young Veith, who was twenty-four years old and lived at No. 564 East Twenty-fourth Street, was a graduate of the 1911 class of the Paterson High School. Recently he had been attending a training school at Springfield, Mass., where he was studying to become a Y. M. C. A. athletic supervisor. During the vacation period he acted as supervisor of the Monumental Heights Public Playgrounds.

George Tierney, the son of Samuel Tierney, a wealthy grocer of Paterson, got out his new touring car last evening and made up a party to go to Dover. After visiting friends there they started back toward Paterson just before midnight. Tierney said that during the homeward ride he had trouble with the headlights, which kept going out.

The machine was proceeding along the main road between Boonton and Lake Hopatcong when, just outside Boonton, the lights suddenly went out and before Tierney could stop the car it ran off the road and struck a huge tree a glancing blow that wrecked the tonneau and threw all hands out.

Although suffering intensely from his injuries, Drullman dragged himself alongside the car and began signaling with the horn until help came. Four doctors then were summoned. Veith died two hours after the accident, without regaining consciousness. The others were hurried in automobiles to St. Joseph's Hospital here. Newell was kept in the hospital and Tierney and the young woman were taken to their homes after their injuries had been dressed.

Liberty Bell Strains of Travel Across Continent.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—Since the day of its departure from Independence Hall, Philadelphia, the famous crack in the Liberty Bell—now at the Panama-Pacific Exposition—has not widened one thousandth of an inch, according to an announcement made to-day by James J. Quirk of Philadelphia, the official guardian of the bell. There was some apprehension that the jar of the journey might cause an extension of the crack, and one of Quirk's duties is to measure the aperture twice every day.

MEMBER OF WORLD'S BUSINESS STAFF WHO WAS KILLED BY AUTO.

ARTHUR H. BILLING.

ARTHUR H. BILLING, WORLD MAN, KILLED BY AUTO MISHAP

Sylvester J. E. Rawling, Evening World Musical Critic, Is Injured.

ESTES PARK, Col., Aug. 14.—Arthur H. Billing, an assistant business manager of the New York World, and Sylvester J. E. Rawling, musical critic of The Evening World, were in a touring car on Thursday afternoon when the machine skidded and capsized.

Mr. Billing was caught under the machine and five of his ribs were broken, one of them puncturing a lung.

Two doctors were summoned from Colorado Springs, but the injuries and shock were too severe, and Mr. Billing died this morning.

Mr. Rawling, who was thrown out of the car, was very badly bruised. Both men were born in Cornwall, England, and were life-long friends. In the last few years Mr. Billing was in feeble health and went to Colorado to recuperate. It was Mr. Rawling's custom to spend his vacation with his old school chum during the musical season in New York.

LOWER PHONE RATES ON NEW JERSEY LINES

Utility Commissioners Accept Schedule That Will Benefit Subscribers.

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 14.—The Board of Public Utility Commissioners to-day accepted new rate schedules of the New York Telephone Company effective September 1.

The schedules approved to-day seek to harmonize as far as possible differences in conditions will admit the schedules in Northern New Jersey with those in effect in New York City. The new schedule involves material decrease to subscribers.

Falls from His Window.

Louis Deckhard, thirty-eight, a foreman, either fell or jumped from a window of his home on the third floor to the arway of the house at No. 147 West Ninety-seventh Street to-day and sustained internal injuries. He was taken to Knickerbocker Hospital.

TALISMANIC COIN LED TO CLEARING OF $10,000 THEFT

It Was Among the Loot That Robbers Took From Stern's Pawnshop.

EMPLOYEE CONFESSES.

Admits He Suggested the Plan—Allowed Himself to Be Tied Up.

An old trade dollar in whose power as a talisman its owner had great faith led to the clearing up of the Stern robbery case.

The pawnshop of Adolph Stern was robbed on January 20 last and $10,000 worth of loot taken. As the police heard the story three men entered the place and at the point of pistols tied up the son of the proprietor and the two clerks Morris Dickler and Edward Schwartz. The robbers then went through the place at their leisure.

The detectives of the Harlem Branch of the Detective Bureau on East One Hundred and Sixteenth Street worked on the case for weeks, but the results were all beyond the fastening of suspicion on the clerk, Dickler. On one of his visits to the pawnshop Mike Meyers, one of the sleuths, said of Dickler: "I won't be satisfied till I have put the nippers on you and taken you to Headquarters." Dickler only grinned and protested his innocence.

One night about a week ago three Italian gunmen entered the little bakery on One Hundred and Sixth Street, near Second Avenue, and ordered something to eat. The proprietor of the place knew the character of his customers and treated them with every consideration. When they got up one of the number, Antonio Di Lalla, gave a coin in payment for the refreshments. It was a coin to which the proprietor was not accustomed, but he took it without a murmur. Di Lalla told him it was a good dollar and he asked no questions.

Next day the bakery man visited the Detective Bureau on One Hundred and Sixteenth Street and showed the coin to Capt. Jones, the head of the branch. Jones questioned him closely. Then he gave him a green-back for the coin, which was a trade dollar, and told him to keep his mouth shut.

The captain recognized the coin as having been stolen from the pawnshop of Adolph Stern. It had belonged to an elderly man, who had carried it as a pocket piece for more than twenty years. It was his talisman. He valued it above almost anything else he owned. He became obsessed with the idea that he was going to lose the coin, so he took it to Stern's shop and pawned it. It lay in Stern's safe for several years. When the robbers went through the safe they took it with the rest of the booty.

The arrest of Di Lalla followed soon and he made a confession implicating Dickler. Dickler had left the pawnshop of Stern and was running a hand book on the races. The detectives found him last night at 116th Street and Lenox Avenue and arrested him.

An Evening World reporter was allowed to talk with Dickler to-day. The young man was thoroughly convinced.

Continued on Second Page.)

BELMONT-ANDREWS WEDDING CHARMS NEWPORT SOCIETY

Ceremony Before Improvised Altar in Rockry Hall, Bride's Home.

BELLEVUE AVENUE GAY.

Crowded With Throng That Attended Ceremony and Reception.

(Special to The Evening World.)

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 14.—Morgan Belmont, son of August Belmont, the banker, and Miss Margaret F. Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Andrews, were married here to-day in the villa of the bride's parents, Rockry Hall, in Bellevue Avenue.

As this is the height of the Newport season, the wedding gathered together practically the entire inner circle of fashionable folk from the cities of the East, who spend a month or more here every year. During the luncheon to the 150 guests after the ceremony and the subsequent reception, Bellevue Avenue was so filled with motors and other conveyances that it looked like the infield at a race meet.

The wedding was held in the large drawing room of Rockry Hall, which had been elaborately decorated with flowers. At the improvised altar, when the bride appeared, accompanied by her father, were the two officiating clergymen, Bishop Thomas F. Doran of Providence and the Rev. James T. Ward of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church. Miss Andrews' attendants were Miss Marie Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Taylor; Miss Helen Fish, daughter of Hamilton Fish; Miss Katherine W. Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Wyman Porter of Tuxedo Park; Miss Ethel Huhn, a cousin of the bride and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Huhn of Philadelphia; Miss Dorothy Gordon King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gordon King; Miss Caroline Hubert of Cincinnati; Miss Angelica Schuyler Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown; Miss Rhoda Fulton, daughter of Rear Admiral William F. Fulton, U. S. N.; Miss Dorothy Watts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Watts, and Miss Hannah Randolph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. P. Randolph of Philadelphia.

Raymond Belmont acted as best man for his brother, and the ushers, most of whom were classmates of the bridegroom at Harvard, were: August Belmont Jr., Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler Jr., C. Oliver Iselin Jr., H. Cary Morgan, Edwin D. Morgan Jr., all of New York; Addison L. Bliss, George L. Aspinwall and Charles P. Curtis Jr., of Boston; William H. Chatfield of Cincinnati, and Samuel C. Hopkins of Catskill, N. Y.

Although the bride had been the recipient of many valuable presents of jewelry and the like, they were not set out for the inspection and admiration of the wedding guests. A number of New Yorkers who chanced to be staying or visiting elsewhere came to Newport to-day to attend the wedding. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. Ormond G. Smith, who are guests of the Duchess de Chaulnes; Mrs. Gifford A. Cochran, Miss Sarah Cooper Hewitt and Miss Eleanor G. Hewitt, William Rhinelanders Stewart Jr., a guest at Beaulieu; Arthur Scott Earden, R. H. Ives Gammell, Carroll Dana Winslow, Miss Mary Pyne, Schuyler L. Parsons and Mr. and Mrs. W. Rathbone Bacon.

SOCIETY FLOCKED TO THEIR WEDDING AT BRIDE'S NEWPORT HOME.

WAR SHOUTERS ARRESTED AS PUBLIC NUISANCES

Magistrate Corrigan Indorses Policeman Who Took Two From Printing House Square.

"The streets of this city are to walk on, not to talk on. This Park Row Debating Society is getting to be a nuisance. I want you men to understand that President Wilson's neutrality proclamation must be observed, no matter what your feelings are. The officer was justified in putting an end to your speech."

Thus spoke Magistrate Corrigan, in Centre Street Court this morning, addressing Joseph Newburger, sixty-nine, of New Brighton, S. I., and Leonard M. Grohs, No. 454 Woodward Avenue, Brooklyn, who were before him on charges of disorderly conduct. Patrolman Thomas Lally of the Oak Street Station said that Newburger, who is of Austrian descent, was blocking the sidewalk in Printing House Square last night with the crowd he had gathered by his violent harangue on the European war. He refused to desist when Lally ordered him to, so the patrolman took him to the station house. Grohs, a German, followed Lally, protesting that Newburger's constitutional right of free speech was being infringed. He became so objectionable that Lally arrested him, too. Both men were discharged with a warning by Magistrate Corrigan.

TWO VICTORIES CLAIMED FOR ARMIES OF THE CZAR; BRITISH CONSUL QUILTS RIGA

Berlin Says Bavarians Are Driving the Russians Back Along 50-Mile Front in Centre With Hindenburg and Mackensen Pounding Flanks.

BIG GERMAN WARSHIP SAID TO HAVE BEEN SUNK.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—American Consul Douglas Jenkins has taken over the British Consulate at Riga, Russia, which is threatened by the Germans.

Ambassador Marye to-day reported this fact from Petrograd but made no comment.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—Although the rumors concerning the Russian campaign which come from Petrograd and Berlin are in sharp conflict, there are two reports which have aroused the hopes of the allies to a high degree. One is that a large German force suffered two defeats in the Courland region, that a considerable portion of it has been cut off and caught in the Grand Duke's trap and is in danger of being wiped out or captured.

The second cheering report was in a despatch to the Times from Petrograd announcing that a large German cruiser had been destroyed in the battle yesterday at the entrance to the Gulf of Riga.

Reports from both Petrograd and Berlin indicate that the fortress of Kovno is under steady fire and that von Hindenburg and von Mackensen are both making progress.

Petrograd claims that the Germans have been checked between Poniow and Dvinsk. Berlin does not concede this, but in any event it does not affect the advance of the flanks further north. Steady progress for the forces of Prince Leopold of Bavaria eastward from Warsaw is taken here to indicate that the Germans are now massing their main movements on a drive through the Russian centre and the continuance of the enveloping effort in the north, along the Dvina. Both Petrograd and Berlin agree that the Germans have occupied the towns of Sokolow, Siedlce and Lukow, forming a German front about sixty miles east of Warsaw and fifty miles wide.

This is more than half way to Riga-Litovsk, which Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian commander-in-chief, hoped to make the new center of his defense. It is now regarded as probable that this point will be abandoned, owing to the speed of the German advance since the fall of Warsaw and the continued pressure of the armies of Generals Gallwitz, Scholtz, Eichhorn and Plack, forming a semi-circle closing in toward the north.

VON HINDENBURG AND VON MACKENSEN BOTH PUSH AHEAD

BERLIN (via wireless to London), Aug. 14.—It was reported to-day that Gen. von Hindenburg's forces, attacking the fortress of Kovno, have stormed and captured the fortified forest of Dominikanka, in front of Kovno.

"North of Novo Georgievsk," said this afternoon's official statement, "we stormed and captured a strong outpost position, taking 1,800 prisoners."

The War Office report also said the forces of Field Marshal von Mackensen pursuing the retreating Russians from the south have reached the line of the highroad leading from Radszyn to Wladyslaw.

The general opinion here is that Russia already has received a blow from which she can scarcely recover before the Allies are forced into peace negotiations. The popular demand is that Germany shall wheel her armies into a new campaign on another front.

The Von Hindenburg-Mackensen movement will not be halted until Kovno is pounded to pieces and all the fortresses of the Kovno-Brest-Litovsk line have fallen before the German attack; military men here believe, those victories constitute the final phase of the stupendous Austro-German campaign in the east. The fall of Warsaw left to the Slavs only three Lithuanian bases for the operations of her field armies. Should Brest-Litovsk be surrendered to the Austro-Germans the Grand Duke's armies will be scattered forces, operating from separate bases and unable to concentrate effectively in any great offensive campaign.

TWO BRITISH SHIPS TORPEDOED AND SUNK

Steamer Cairo and Fishing Boat Amethyst Attacked by U Boats—Crews Saved.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—The British steamer Cairo and the fishing smack Amethyst have been sunk by submarines. The crews were saved.

The Cairo displaced 1,671 tons and was owned by the Glasgow Navigation Company of Glasgow. She was built in 1882.

CHICAGO SALARIES HELD UP

Political Row Halts Pay of 17,000 City Employees.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Salaries of 17,000 city employees, aggregating approximately $2,300,000 a month, were held up to-day by the city Civil Service Commission. Recently the city treasurer refused to pay the salaries of seven special men employed in the Civil Service Commission work because civil service reform leaders had informed him the men had not been legally appointed. To-day's action was regarded as a reprisal measure and the clash was held to be largely of political nature.